BUILDINGS FOR CRESCENT AVENUE

Hicks Realty Company and H. S. Challenger Ready to Build.

The Hicks Realty Co. expects within about a month to break ground in Crescent avenue between William and Harriet streets for a new block containing three stores and four flats. The structure will be three stories high, the first of brick and second of wood and stucco work. The building will be 56 x 60 ft., and will take the place of some one story shacks which have stood there for several years. Harold S. Challenger, who owns the property just east of the Hicks' property, with less frontage is planning to build a three story building of similar design, with two flats above and a large store for himself on the ground floor.

"SONS OF DANIEL BOONE"

TO LUNT KIDNAPPERS

Member of a Boy's Organization Disappears.

New York, March 31.—Twenty thousand American boys, all members of a social and athletic organization known as the Sons of Daniel Boone, have enlisted in the task of running down the kidnapper of one of their number, Harold Moon, a member of the Flint, Mich., Chapter of the organization. The boy disappeared Feb. 27.

The aid of the Sons of Daniel Boone was invoked by Ralph Moon, brother of the kidnapped boy, in a letter of appeal sent to every chapter of the organization in America.

"Please get right to work and hys-teric," urged the boy in his letter, "for the honor of our great society and to help a fellow scout who is in the hands of the enemy."

EMERGENCY CASES OF ONE NIGHT

William McGrath was seized with uraemic convulsions at his boarding place 147 Golden Hill street last night and was removed to St. Vincent's hospital. He recovered consciousness during the night and was reported to be in a fair way to recovery this morning.

A stone thrown by an inconsiderate bystander so disturbed the mustang which was ridden by Samuel Spat on Main street last night that the animal bucked, throwing his rider to the pavement and injuring him seriously. Spat is 19 years of age. He struck the pavement on his head and was rendered unconscious. He recovered at the Emergency hospital where Dr. Ives dressed his wounds.

Mrs. Ann Canning fell down the stairs at her home 141 Howe street yesterday. She was picked up in an unconscious condition. A physician who was called found symptoms of internal injuries.

WELLS MUST BE DREDGED AT SEWER MOUTHS

This Will Prevent Sewage Deposits from Filling up Channel.

Order in Form of Suggestion Comes To Street Committee from Major Harry Taylor—It Was Formerly The Practice To Dredge Such Depositories Every Few Years.

Major Harry Taylor of the engineering department will not allow the city to empty the Lindsey street sewer into the channel near the Berkshire Mills and has informed the sewer committee that he would advise the dredging of a well 100 feet square and 12 feet below low water for the reception of sewage. This suggestion from the War department is regarded as a forerunner ordering the city to dig similar basins at the mouth of all its sewers to take care of the sewerage and that the time is not far distant when the city will have to make an yearly appropriation for the dredging of sewer basins at the mouth of the sewers.

While the idea of the city digging the big hole in the bottom of the river comes as a suggestion from the War Department it is really mandatory for in the same breath the department makes it understood that it will not allow sewage to empty into the channel.

The mandate from Major Taylor comes at a time when the aldermen were planning to alleviate the conditions at the Berkshire Mills' wharf.
John A. Barri, proprietor of the mills, claimed damages from the city for allowing the Lindsey street sewer to fill up the berth he had dredged in front of his wharf for the purpose of tying up coal boats. The city agreed to pay damages and to better conditions by extending the sewer to deep water. It was planning to lay the extension when the letter came from the War department. At the meeting of the sewer committee last night it was decided to hold another meeting on Friday night for the purpose of considering Major Taylor's suggestion.

The committee decided further to hold public hearings on Monday evening, April 19, upon the laying of sewers in the following streets: Savoy street, from Main to Wayne streets; extension of the present sewer in Madison avenue, from Federal street to Garfield avenue; North avenue 150 ft. west of Lexington avenue; Cherry street, from Broadway to the city line; Cock avenue; Hanover street, between Norman street and Vordlin avenue; Eaton street, between Norman street and Elk avenue; and on the purchase of the private sewer in Cliff street, near the Wheeler public school.

MOTHER WOULD

JOIN HER SON IN
LEPER COLONY

Mrs. Thomas of Boston Only Waits Permission from Authorities.

Boston, March 31.—Praying that she may join her leper son, James, in a living death on Federal Island, Mrs.
Emma Thomas of Boston, is to-day in a fever of apprehension lest the state board of charities refuse her plea. A decision is to be given Friday.

Only a few days ago young Thomas, 17 years old, was sent to the Molokai of Buzards Bay, he having contracted the dread disease in the Barbadoes.
Now his mother has sold all her goods and only awaits the state's permission to join him in his living death.

"I may just as well be leper," she says. "People shun me and pass over to the other side of the street when they see me coming. If I have it, then they'll be compelled to send me where I can be with my poor boy.
Nothing matters to me but my son.
No matter what the price, even if it be my life, I will gladly join him in a few days."

WANTED GOOD

TAILOR'S LABEL

Ashamed to Own Up to Wearing Ready Made
Clothing — Funny
Isn't It?

SO HE OFFERED TO BUY TAILOR'S NAME

Then He Could "Chuck the Bluff" He Wore a Tailor Made Suit.

There came to the notice of the writer recently an instance that was as amusing as it was convincing, that a man with a ready-made suit of clothes is ashamed to acknowledge his clothing is not the work of a custom tailor. A fellow clad in ready-mades stepped into one of Bridgeport's best tailoring places and wanted to buy the tailor's label so that he could place it in his ready-made suit and "cut the bluff" he had tailor-made clothes. Can you beat this? And is there any doubt in your mind but what every wearer of a ready-made suit feels more or less ashamed when he looks the individuality of having his clothes made for himself alone, to his own measure and to harmonize with his personal characteristics and by his own tailor who knows his requirements and how to fit him? No man can feel right in a suit made for anyone who happens to pick it up on the bargain counter or elsewhere, and that's why this man referred to went to a good tailor and confidentially tried to buy a label from him to sew into the clothes of which he was ashamed. Is this sort of apologetic feeling about one's apparel worth the very few dollars saved in buying ready-made clothes? No—a thousand times no—and if you are wise you'll never experience it. The satisfaction, all kinds of it, in being able to say, "Wheale made my suit." Then you know and your friends know your clothes are right—right in style and fit, right every way. Then be able to say just this thing about your Easter suit. Go to Wheale, 1042 Main street, and you'll get the most satisfaction you've ever known since you bought your first long trousers.
Wheale is the creative tailor—the originator of styles especially adapted for your year, and his clothes are always the height of fashion. Step in and look and ask questions, at least.

HOLZER WON'T APPEAR TO FAVOR HIS THREE BILLS

Hartford, March 31.—Senator Holzer of Bridgeport yesterday said that he would not appear before the judiciary committee to favor the three bills he introduced which have been regarded here as prohibiting any corporation from doing business not specifically permitted in its charter.

Mr. Holzer repeated that he introduced the bills at the request of an attorney acting for the United States Illuminating Company of New Haven and Bridgeport and said that he understood their purpose was to prevent any private corporation from selling light and power to any other corporation or individual.

"I shall not appear in the favor of these bills," said the senator yesterday. "I have no further interest in them. As I have said, I introduced them at the request of a Bridgeport attorney. The bills have not been assigned a hearing before the judiciary committee as yet."
